1) There is no objection to extend the period for acceptance of small endowments. But it will be seen from particulars noted above that there is no need for a general order as the cases are extremely few. If any donors proposed endowments below Rs 1000 & Rs 2000 they may be accepted. It is enough, in such cases, to inform the Education & Muzrai Secretariats which alone deal with such cases to note this understanding. It is not necessary & is not a general order extending the period.
